

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT Position Profile

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi (TAMU-CC) invites nominations and applications for a talented fundraising professional to serve as the institution's Executive Director of Development. The Executive Director will play a critical role in growing giving by the institution's alumni, parents, faculty, staff, and other key constituencies.

Development Team

The Executive Director will serve as one of several key members of the university's development team reporting to the Associate Vice President of Development. The Executive Director will be responsible for leading a team of two mid-level directors of development and one director of development at the Art Museum of South Texas. This team is responsible for gifts from $1,000-$10,000 and the Executive Director oversees four of the university's key fundraising efforts:

- President's Council;
- Parent's Council;
- Faculty and Staff Giving Campaign; and
- Annual Giving

In addition to the Executive Director, the institution's development team reporting to the Associate Vice President also includes the Senior Director of Major Giving, Director of Foundation and Corporate Relations, Director of Engagement, and Stewardship Coordinator.

The University

TAMU-CC is a vibrant, relatively young doctoral-granting University and Hispanic-Serving Institution (HSI). With 12,000 students from 47 states and 54 foreign nations and 1,318 faculty and staff, it combines a heritage of teaching excellence with innovation in research and creative activity, as well as community engagement.

TAMU-CC possesses the key elements to support its move to the next level among its peers as a major Hispanic-Serving research university. The university's strategic plan, Momentum 2020, lays out a bold agenda for developing recognized programs in areas important to the region and nation. To achieve this goal, the university has begun to strengthen and grow its infrastructure to support existing and promising new programs. Services and operations dedicated to student recruitment, retention, and welfare will be expanded to meet increased student demands and enhance the educational experience for all.

TAMU-CC is a member of the Texas A&M University System – a network of eleven universities, seven state agencies and a comprehensive health science center. As a member of the Texas A&M University System, the school benefits from a range of centralized resources, increased visibility and political clout, and opportunities to collaborate in mutually beneficial ways with peers across member institutions and associated agencies.

TAMU-CC is on a trajectory to achieve national recognition as evidenced by the quality of its faculty and staff, the success of its students, the connectedness of its alumni and the excellence of its academic and student life portfolios. Its strategic location on the Gulf of Mexico and on the cultural border with Latin America provides a basis for gaining national and international prominence. TAMU-CC is committed to becoming one of the leading centers of higher education in the Gulf of Mexico region while serving the intellectual, cultural, social, environmental and economic needs of South Texas.

Leadership

This is an exciting time to join the leadership team at TAMU-CC. Due to several retirements, the leadership team will be hiring a new Vice President for Institutional Advancement, Vice President for Marketing and Communications, and Vice President for Academic Affairs. Dr. Kelly Quintanilla was officially named President on September 1st. President Quintanilla has been with the Island University for 24 years, earning the rank of Professor of Communication and serving in multiple administrative roles (Chair, Director, Dean and Provost). The successful candidate will join a highly collaborative team dedicated to open communication, data-driven decisions, innovation, efficiency, excellence, and unparalleled student success.

The Community

TAMU-CC has a beautiful main campus located on a coastal island of 240 acres surrounded by the waters of the Corpus Christi and Oso bays – the only university located on its own island. TAMU-CC was ranked first on Best College Reviews' list of "50 Best Colleges By the Sea." Just eight miles from downtown Corpus Christi, the natural setting is enhanced by modern, attractive, and state-of-the-art classroom buildings and support facilities. With a population of over 300,000, Corpus Christi is the largest Texas city south of San Antonio, as well as a coastal city, making TAMU-CC highly attractive to prospective students from throughout the region and beyond.

Opportunities, Challenges, and Qualifications

Responsibilities of the next Executive Director include, but are not limited to:

- Overseeing development directors to achieve fundraising goals for alumni and friends of the university;
- Working with college deans to identify funding priorities, set and monitor annual goals, and coordinate mid-level gift fundraising;
- Identifying, cultivating, soliciting, and stewarding President's Council members from university alumni and friends, including planning and hosting programming events and working with volunteer chairs to identify and recruit new members;
- Overseeing outsourced vendor responsible for implementing annual giving fundraising campaigns to include, but not limited to: call center, direct mail, e-mail, and crowdfunding;

- Planning and implementing Parent’s Council fundraising campaign to include, but not limited to: implementation of presentations at new student orientations, direct mail, e-mail, and call-center operations; and
- Planning and implementing the faculty and staff fundraising campaign.

The successful candidate should possess the following skills and qualifications:

- A bachelor’s degree or higher;
- Five or more years of professional experience in fundraising or a related field;
- Demonstrated success in executing fundraising activities, identifying prospects, developing strong relationships, cultivating support, and stewarding gifts;
- Strong leadership skills and the ability to oversee, develop, and empower a team of development professionals;
- Ability to conceptualize and implement strategic goals and objectives;
- Excellent organizational skills that are proactive rather than reactive in nature;
- Strong written and verbal communication skills and effective interpersonal skills to be comfortable working with others to establish strategic priorities and to manage tactical efforts;
- Personal and professional integrity, good judgement, and attention to detail;
- Ability to fundraise using an appropriate balance of analytical data-driven efforts and intuitive relationship-driven efforts; and
- Ability to work with university administrators and faculty to understand their funding needs and make connections to potential donors on their behalf.
